Our School Value for this half term – Truthfulness

10th December 2021

Ladybirds Latest

This week the children have been enjoying hearing the Nativity story, learning the names of the special characters and the reason we celebrate Christmas.

Bilingualism – this week the Criw Cymraeg committee have reviewed our areas for development further to the Local Authority meeting which they attended last week. The school seeks their ideas to make our provision engaging and fun so that pupils are also leaders of learning.

Wellbeing – thank you to Katie Millard who led our Happiness Club workshops earlier this year with each class. She has shared the following link for Christmas wellbeing

Diocese Church Links – you will know that all the school children completed a design for Bishop Gregory of St Asaph's Christmas card. We are so proud of the fact that Archdeacon Barry Wilson came to school this week to present the 3rd place certificate to Oliver Edwards – da iawn Ollie! The following children were given Highly Commended Certificates so our congratulations to them all:-

Kaiya Evans, Evan Hopkins, Catrin Morris, Jesse Orme, Amelia Ruscoe, Dougie Williams and Evan Williams.

School Values – you will have seen the poster on Seesaw which details the annual competition to make a Christmas tree decoration based on one of our 6 values. Entries to be in by Wednesday, 15th December.
