Our School Value for this half term – Respect

14th October 2022

Church Links – it was so lovely to witness a full Church on Friday for our Harvest Festival – thank you for coming along to celebrate with us. We were so proud of the children with their readings, prayers and hymns. A total of £200 was raised from the collection for Cancer Research which is amazing – diolch yn fawr.

Safeguarding – it was good to welcome PC Gayle, Schools Officer to start on the programme of delivery of safeguarding messages for the year. Dosbarth Mrs Davies – People Who Help Us, Dosbarth Mrs Roberts – Safe Haven, Dosbarth Miss Morris – Friend or Foe

Save the date – we will hold our next Parents Evening on Thursday, 10th November from 3.15 to 6 pm. It will be very much an open session without time bookings however full details will follow in due course.

Ladybirds Latest

This week we have moved on to discuss Autumn and the changes that the season brings with its beautiful colours.

Bilingualism/Welsh dimension – tomorrow is Diwrnod Su'mae in which we are all encouraged to use as much or some Cymraeg as we start off conversations.

The event aims to show that the Welsh language belongs to us all – fluent speakers, learners or those shy about their Welsh. The Day is celebrated annually on the 15th of October

Family photos – these took place on Monday and we await the proofs.

Community Links – please support the Nearly New Sale this Sunday at the Village Hall from 10-2 organised by a few of our parents who are kindly donating the table fees to our school. There will also be a School Uniform stall at very reasonable prices.

Healthy Schools – the nasal flu immunisation forms have been sent out on Monday in preparation for 24th October. Please could they be returned by Monday 17th. The School Nurse team require a 100% response.
