Our School Value for this half term – Truthfulness

15th December 2023

Expressive Arts –it was lovely to witness the musical skills of BI 3/4 as they performed their Toots to the whole school, parents and families after a 10 week block with Gayle of Music Heroes. The whole class now able to read and discuss musical elements – amazing !

Christmas Fair – each class will be selling goods made and co-ordinated by them at our Fair on Monday, 18th in each of their classrooms from 2pm-3pm. Come along to escort your child around the other stalls. Thank you for all the raffle donations—we now have more than enough. Two parents have informed Mrs Morris that they can help with refreshments (if there are any more, please come along) to the sound of Christmas music.

Christmas Dinner – we look forward to this on Tuesday. Children can come again to school in their Christmas jumpers/hats if they wish.

Church Links – please note the services coming up in Church this Christmas.

*IMPORTANT Fundraising – thank you for your orders for the family photos which have been sent home today so keep a lookout for them in the children's bags. They are lovely and we hope you agree. This small venture raised a total of £330.

What's there to say apart from we continue with Christmas craft which will be nice surprises going home.

Christmas Nativity – well we think our children were absolutely amazing in both our Nativity presentations. They delivered their lines with confidence and sang their hearts out. Thank you to our Church community, to our parents for costumes and learning lines and listening to songs on loop and to our amazing staff for drama, song, costumes, scenery, props and lighting. We were very proud indeed.

Charity Fundraising – a total of £302 was raised in our concerts for our designated charity of Young Minds – diolch yn fawr.

End of Term – we end the term on Thursday. Please come along to the school at 2.30 to witness our annual singing to send the school community on its way to Christmas.
