Our School Value for this half term – Respect

15th October 2021

Church Links – please remember the Messy Church activity this Sunday as shared in previous newsletters.

Online Messy Church for Harvest

We will be holding our next Messy Church on Sunday 17 October. There will be videos on the TVMA Facebook page (also available by email or USB) with activities, story and songs. Due to a grant from the Diocese we are able to provide free craft bags to accompany the Messy Church activities. If you would like to receive craft bags or would like to know more, please contact Sarah Burton (revdsarah7@gmail.com, 01691 829116).

Virtual Visit – the children of Dosbarth McWhinnie enjoyed a drama production this week online in the absence of Arad Goch Theatre group being able to visit schools. Firstly the children watched the presentation then met with one of the characters for a Hotseating activity the following day. INSIDE – OUTSIDE is the story of 3 friends, how they treat each other, their friendships, relationships. The script is made up from pupils' own words combined with modern dance and ballroom, set to contemporary Welsh music. The project has been funded by Building a Healthier Wales and Dyfed Powys Police.

Covid-19 – you will have seen the message on Seesaw on Wednesday which basically says it all that the virus has now well and truly reached Llangantffraid with an effect on many pupils and also Staffing. Firstly thank you to parents for being so diligent in testing and monitoring your child's health and for communicating with the school. Secondly with a depleted staff, please bear with us up to Half Term. Our priority becomes the safety and wellbeing of children and also the Staff in order to keep the school open and running.

*REPEAT MESSAGE Friends of the School – this is a voluntary body that works closely alongside the school to organise fundraising events so that all the children of our school can enjoy enrichment activities. We make an urgent plea for parents to join this group – the more there are, the less work there is to do. We have been so fortunate to have a very hardworking group over recent years however these parents now are very much at the upper end of the school and hence we need parents from earlier years coming through. We have placed a high value on their efforts and commitment. There will be a meeting via Zoom on Wednesday, 20th October at 7 pm. Please contact Carrie or Karly (current shared Chair) or Mrs Morris for a link to the meeting. If you cannot attend please inform Mrs Morris of your interest – we need you!

Ladybirds Latest

We have continued on our Jungle theme and this week concentrated on a sensory approach to learning gross and fine motor skills.
