Our School Value for this half term – Truthfulness

19th November 2021

Ladybirds Latest

In line with World Kindness Day, we have carried out lots of activities about being kind. Also finger painting to help our Number skills.

It is with regret we share the news that both Kim Langley and Carolyn Berry will be ending their roles in Ladybirds by the end of this term, each for their own personal reasons. We are currently in the recruitment process with adverts out and the closing date next week. We shall keep you informed when we know more.

Safeguarding - It has been noticed by school staff but also pointed out by parents concerned too that younger children are playing on the steps and on the triangle wall by the school gates. Please could children remain with their parents so that we don't have potential accidents. Staff and other parents are feeling uncomfortable in a sense of feeling responsible for them.

Remembrance Sunday – we are pleased to say that Caitlyn Gale and Isabelle Steel represented the school in the Sunday village service laying a wreath on behalf of the school.

Charity – there are lots of spots and Pudsey and Blush characters in the building today for the Children in Need cause. As ever, we will inform you next week as to how much was raised.

School Effectiveness – you will know that we issued an Estyn model questionnaire to all parents on Friday via Seesaw to seek your views on the school to feed into our self evaluation. Could we ask that as many as possible of you complete it by Monday, 22nd November. Also that details can be shared in the final question if there are positives or areas for development to work on.

Friends of the School – as mentioned in a previous newsletter, tickets sold last year for the Christmas hamper prizes have been kept safe for this year. FoS will issue raffle tickets for purchase just to our Reception children families. Should anybody else require some, contact FoS or the school for further tickets at £5 to be entered for the luxury hampers. Donations of products will also be gratefully appreciated.

Fundraising – the Christmas merchandise has arrived with just a few outstanding orders to come. Thank you for supporting this project.
