Our School Value for this half term – Truthfulness

1st December 2023

THE FIRST SUNDAY
IN ADVENT:

HOPE

Bilingualism/Welsh Dimension – Mrs Andrew came in this week to talk to the Criw Cymraeg about our current strengths and areas to develop. They always respond very well and represent our school with enthusiasm.

Da iawn Freya for competing this week in Round 2 of the Cogurdd competition at Llanfair Caereinion. She had to independently cook a pasta dish. Lovely photos on the Urdd Rhanbarth Maldwyn site.

Blwyddyn 3-6 have an exciting opportunity on Monday for filming with the Urdd a song to mix with the other Maldwyn (north Powys) schools. We must have each child's parental permission as described on Seesaw by 9 am Monday morning to be part of it.

*REPEAT MESSAGE Parentpay – we are currently looking through accounts. As usual could we ask that outstanding debts are paid for lunches, breakfast club and after school club. On the other hand, we are seeing some accounts with credits due to pupils from Reception to Year 3 having free school meals. We know that some parents ask us to transfer to the clubs instead. Let us know your wishes.

*IMPORTANT Panto – we are looking forward to our Panto visit on Tuesday to Theatre Severn, Shrewsbury. We will leave promptly at 9 am so would like children in school by 8.40 please to get them toiletted and ready for the journey. School uniform as normal. No snacks etc to be taken as we will have an ice cream in the interval. We will then be back for about 1.15 pm for a later lunch so recommend a good breakfast in the morning to keep them going.

Eco Council – the council started work towards their action plan target this week of cleaning up in our Cynefin. Da iawn. The next event will be the No Electricity day at school on Friday 8th December – children and staff to come to school in bright clothing!

Charity Fundraising – next Thursday is Save the Children Christmas jumper day. Wear over normal school uniform for a suggested donation of a £1.

Community links/Fundraising – great to hear that the village fayre was very well supported and our thanks for the Christmas Jumper stall which raised £65 for school.

Also 'diolch yn fawr' to Lindsay and Dave at the Lion Hotel for providing a wonderful CWRE (Careers and Work Related experiences) for Dosbarth Mrs Davies, learning all about the skills of the hospitality industry.

Another diolch to Gwynfor Thomas and Rich Evans for once again sorting a Christmas tree for the school as Advent has arrived. We very much appreciate it.

Church Links – see poster---→ and also Messy Church this Sunday.

Fundraising – rather than get a photographer in this term for family photos, we have organised in house and can use the opportunity to raise funds but also keeping costs down for families. Thank you to Sharon for her photography skills.

A form link online on Seesaw has been issued today for orders – no draft copies, no sleeve or frame, just a simple 7x5 choice for £2 a copy – all to keep the ordering simple and we hope you will love them. They are mainly family photos only (including Ladybird siblings and requests of cousins) along with individual ones just for Ladybirds and cousins.

Ladybirds Latest - we have been communicating with Father Christmas to make requests for our Ladybirds room, posting in our special postbox.

Christmas Nativity – practices of Years 5/6 script and whole school songs are well underway ready for our Nativity in Church on Thursday 14th December at 1.30 pm and 6 pm. Class teachers are issuing costume requests. Further details will follow in due course.

Sport – diolch Anna and Jason for carrying out the Cycling Proficiency training today with Blwyddyn 6. Keep safe on the roads!
