Our School Value for this half term – Perseverance

1st March 2024

IMPORTANT – can we remind you that the school day starts at 8.50 please. There are many children arriving after this time which means they are missing out on education which would amount to 50 minutes over a week. Activities in class have already started and all staff are committed to classrooms. Diolch

IMPORTANT - could all grapes/cherry tomatoes etc be chopped in half at home for the morning snacks as they are a high risk for choking especially for the younger children. Also a request from the Infant children themselves that lovely healthy apples are also chopped ready in a snack pot. We know that fresh fruit is costly and don't want children wasting your money.

UNCRC – United Nations Convention of the Rights of the Child:

Article 23 – If I have a disability, I have the right to special care and education.

Bilingualism/Welsh Ethos – Today is Dydd Gŵyl Dewi Sant with Welsh clothing and emblems filling the classrooms. St David is known for stating the importance of doing the important little things in life – ‘Gwnewch y pethau bychain’ – an important message.

The children who are competing tomorrow at Ysgol Llanfyllin in the Urdd Eisteddfod are performing their items to the whole school this afternoon. We wish them ‘Pob Lwc’. Entry for adults to the Eisteddfod (not prelims) is £4 cash, no charge for children. Mrs Morris will find the individual competitors in the morning for their prelims as shared on Seesaw – otherwise if only doing the choir and unison party, please arrive for 4 pm. School uniform for all.

Please note the poster at the bottom of the newsletter of a Fashion Show in the community with proceeds going to the Urdd National Eisteddfod in Meifod.

Health and Wellbeing – thank you to the staff members and Carrie Williams for accompanying children on running practice in preparation for Cross Country coming up next week for some Years 3-6.

Hair Visitors – we just like to give a reminder every now and again to check your child's hair for headlice which do the rounds in order to break the cycle.

School Council Fundraising – there is a polite request from the committee for donations of Easter Eggs and/or raffle prizes for their end of term Bingo. Should there be any parents with shop/supermarket contacts, let us know.

*REMINDER Fundraising – a group of parents have organised the next fundraiser as a Cinema Night on Tuesday, 12th March after school. See the poster below. Please can all ticket requests be sent in envelopes so that money can be accounted for and not get misled. In purchasing a ticket for your child, you are accepting the fact it is a PG (Parental Guidance) film and that you think it suitable for your child, especially the younger ones.

Reading skills – books will be on sale after school today and Monday to 4 pm from the Book Fair. Also, it is World Book Day on Thursday, 7th March. Bring your favourite book to school and dress up as the matching character.

Curriculum Skills – well done to Dosbarth Miss Morris for making and selling pizzas today linked to their Numeracy work on fractions – real life skills.
