Our School Value for this half term – Courage

23rd June 2023

Church Links – this week's Bible story told by Teddy Francis – Parable of the Rich Fool

Sports Day – we were so fortunate that the sun shone on our afternoon. Well done to all children for their sporting attitude and endeavours and to our Tim Coch and captains of Erin and Theo. We thank you all for attending to support us and our fundraising parents for selling refreshments and raising £100. We also thank the Salihi family once again for providing shelter and the Williams family for providing each child with a cool lolly afterwards.

*REPEAT MESSAGE Diocese Links – the Values Committee have been busy preparing activities which were shared on Seesaw this week. Firstly a Teddy Assembly on Wednesday, 28th June – bring a Teddy in to school (no other soft toy characters). Secondly a collection of Teddies donated to charity with the criteria listed on the Seesaw poster. Good work Values!

Hair Visitors – they seem to be back on their rounds! Could we ask that you check your child's hair regularly and treat if necessary so that the cycle can be broken.

Health and Wellbeing – thank you to Sue Jones who along with her Judo pupils demonstrated their skills of self defence and agility

Community Links – the next Quiz at the Lion will be 11th July arrive 7 for 7.30 this time for some of our past pupils on their Duke of Edinburgh award.

Celebrating Diversity - We would like to celebrate the Malayalam language and culture as a whole school afternoon on Monday, 3rd July around the festival of Onam. We are inviting all children and staff to come to school in the style and colours of their traditional clothing. Ideas will have been discussed in class before then. The afternoon will contain aspects of cooking, art, music, dance, traditional stories, games, all appropriate to the age of each class.

Ladybirds Latest

Lots of work this week on zoo animals – making replicas, talking about their patterns.
