UNCRC – United Nations Convention of the Rights of the Child:

Article 31 – I have a right to relax and play

Article 33 – I should be protected from dangerous drugs

Sport – lots going on this week. Thank you again to Sue Jones for coming in to carry out a Judo workshop with Dosbarth Miss Davies and Mrs Roberts.

Well done to the Urdd netball teams who performed yesterday in Welshpool – some good performances.

Today we have 23 children going to Builth Wells for the Cross Country competition. We hope they run well.

Bilingualism/Welsh Ethos – Thank you to the parents who joined us for our Prynawn Cymraeg and for joining in with the activities. We hope it gave a small flavour of the bilingualism and Welsh ethos that goes on here.

IMPORTANT - Next Friday, 3rd May in the village hall we will be holding a Welsh celebration concert of Urdd items along with ALL children participating and performing other items. The concert starts 1 pm, doors open 12.45. Entry will be £3 per adult to raise funds. Please come and join us.

IMPORTANT - Further details for our Choir performing at the Urdd Eisteddfod in Meifod on Wednesday, 29th May. Tickets are slightly discounted if ordered before 19th May. School will order and pay for each competitor's ticket – Mrs Morris will send a Forms link next week to confirm each child being there to perform. Please follow the link below to purchase or you can pay at the Eisteddfod gate on the day. There are also offers for family tickets.

IMPORTANT – After School Club – could we ask a polite favour that bookings for club are made in advance especially for on a Tuesday which seems to be very high numbers compared to the other evenings. Diolch.

Ladybirds Latest

We have been doing lots of gardening this week – sorting pots and planting and look forward to checking on their growth.

Decorating Weekend - Urdd 24

Menter Maldwyn are organising a DECORATING WEEKEND on the 4-6th May, where we are encouraging everybody to put their decorations up during that weekend.

We also have a COMPETITION for the best decorated school, home and business! Menter Maldwyn are sponsoring a £200 voucher to Siop Cwlwm for the winning school, and the winning home and business will receive a family ticket to the Eisteddfod along with Eisteddfod yr Urdd Maldwyn 2024 t-shirts for all.

Send your pictures along with your contact details to menteriaithmaldwyn@gmail.com or via a Facebook, Instagram or X message to @mentermaldwyn by the 12th of May to compete. Musician and TV personality Aeron Pughe will be our adjudicator, and we hope to reveal the winners during the unveiling ceremony with the Eisteddfod Chair and Crown on the 15th of May.

As you set about putting up your decorations, remember the following guidelines:

- Consider where you are putting any signs in your area. Please make sure you have permission (if needed).
- You should avoid placing any decoration on footways, roads or on the side of main roads and don't put any decoration on signposts, lampposts or traffic signs.
- By placing the decorations, you will be responsible for taking them down following the event.
