Our School Value for this half term – Respect

27th October 2023

Bilingualism/Welsh Dimension – it was lovely that so many Urdd members in Dosbarth Miss Davies entered the Cogurdd (Coginio=Cooking + Urdd) competition as the first round. Diolch Rachel from the kitchen for being the judge. Some lovely varied salads were created and the one that goes on to the regional round is Freya Jones - llongyfarchiadau

Fundraising – lots going on at present as detailed below.

- Thank you for all the Bags2school – we raised £153.
- Well, there is amazing news to share on the Sponsored Walk organised by Miss Morris and the School Council. A huge amount of nearly £2000 pounds – incredible. Thank you so much is an understatement.
- Please come along and support the Beetle Drive tonight after school.

Sport – well done to the Blwyddyn 5/6 girls who participated in the Urdd Girls Football in Newtown yesterday. Great performances. Thank you as ever for parent and staff transportation.

Parents Evening – thank you for attending last night to look at your child's work and to discuss with Class Teachers. A very positive evening indeed.

Church Links – please see the poster below about the next Messy Church on Sunday 5th for Remembrance.

New starters – please note that the photo of our Reception children has been issued this week in the Advertiser and the County Times newspapers.

Community Links – the village Christmas Fayre will take place on Saturday, 25th November – details below.

*REPEAT MESSAGE Health and Wellbeing – we have already shared the date of Thursday, 16th November for the nasal flu vaccine for the whole school (not Ladybirds). The forms have been sent home. Could they be returned by Monday, 6th November latest upon our return from Half Term please.

School Meals – please see the posters below about special themed meals after Half Term. We are always very proud of the meals provided here by our kitchen staff.

Ladybirds Latest

This week we have been looking at pumpkins and the seeds inside them then making and decorating biscuits.

We wish you a lovely Half Term. See you on Monday, 6th
November.
