Our School Value for this half term – Trust

28th April 2023

UNCRC

Article 40 – I have the right to legal help and to be treated fairly if I have been accused of breaking the law.

Discovery Day – you will know that we launch each term topic with this day with 4 groups of mixed age children rotating around 4 classrooms. Activities were as follows: Superhero landscape art, Superhero stop motion films based on the Traction Man story, Heroes vs Villains in 101 Dalmations, First Aid Heroes – so much fun, hands on learning

Health and Wellbeing – the Sports Ambassadors met with Gemma Owen, Sports Development Officer this week to discuss their role as leaders in planning for and the delivery of sports activities – well done Isobelle, Seb, Harry, Carwyn and Alfie.

Church Links – you will know that classes recently have been going to Church each fortnight for a worship with Rev. Jo. We invite you to join Years 4-6 on Tuesday 9th May at 2.15 pm.

Welsh ethos – The Criw Cymraeg met with Cheryl Andrew, our Powys Welsh Officer to discuss our progress and targets towards gaining the Siarter Iaith Silver award. She is always so full of praise for the Welsh ethos and attitudes of our pupils.

Expressive Arts – we thoroughly enjoyed the Music Heroes Shropshire 'gig' on Friday afternoon showing how playing a musical instrument is cool and so versatile and can lead to future careers – great performance.

This afternoon Dosbarth Mr McWhinnie and Miss Morris will be listening to a virtual live BBC Orchestra.

Llangantffraid Fundraising – as promised last week the Movie Night was extremely well supported and raised a total of £350 for our school funds. Many thanks to the fundraising team and for the support.
