ESTYN! – the inspection report is published today to the public.

As a whole school we are so proud of the fact that the children, staff, Governing Body, families and community and their relationships have all been recognised as a strength. Only one recommendation which is an amazing outcome.

The full report can be read on the link:-

There is a quick one page summary read for parents on the following link:-

Our Governing Body have their next meeting on Monday when the report will be discussed and a more in detail message shared with parents next week.

Safeguarding/Healthy Schools – we were pleased to welcome Stephen Lloyd from CAMHS to work with Dosbarth Miss Morris and Mr McWhinnie on the 5 ways to wellbeing.

School Meals – we are so proud of our school kitchen for gaining the food hygiene rating of 5/5. Well done. Also see the special menus coming up at the end of this newsletter.

*REPEAT IMPORTANT - School Meals – from 6th to the 9th March there will be limited capacity for meals in the school kitchen due to the national rollout for free meals for Year 1 and 2 in the summer term and refurbishment of equipment. For this reason Powys Catering are requesting that pupils bring in their own packed lunches apart from our existing free school meals in each year group along with our Reception year. There will be updates and reminders closer to the time.

Community Links – please take note of the poster below.

Blwyddyn 5 a 6 thoroughly enjoyed the drama performance of Matilda. We thank Ysgol Llanfyllin for inviting us – a lovely morning. Also lovely to see many of our past pupils.

Mrs Helen Elliott who provides piano lessons at our school has her annual Young Musician's Cheese & Wine Fundraising concert on Friday 24th March 2023. Tickets on sale very soon. All pianists from Llansantffraid School (past and present) have been invited to take part.

Sport – Blwyddyn 5 a 6 went to Ysgol Llanfyllin this week alongside other cluster schools to participate in the Indoor Athletics event. Our Sports Ambassadors (Seb, Isobelle, Carwyn, Alfie and Harri) were given the responsibility of leading groups.

Church Links – we welcomed Darren Mayor to deliver a worship to the whole school on the importance of being true to ourselves and celebrating our individuality.
