Ladybirds Latest

We have continued with our work on colours this week, matching to the natural world and also linking to the emergency services. Thank you to Sue Jones for carrying out a balance and co-ordination activity.

Bilingualism/Welsh dimension – for those that wish to join Yr Urdd, get your membership in.

Family photos – these will take place on Monday morning across the school including Ladybirds children – school uniform.

Visits – we wish to thank Dewi Morris from Severn Rivers Trust and Maddie and Hannah who spent the morning on Friday with Dosbarth MrMcWhinnie undertaking a river survey and building an otter holt.

Digital skills – we welcomed back Annwen Watkins, a specialist, to deliver and share skills with Dosbarth Mrs Davies.

Child Ambassadors – these have now been selected from Blwyddyn 6 to be Super Ambassadors who promote children's rights under the UNCRC. It links well with what the Values Committee will be working on with Mrs Roberts so this year's representatives are Sky Peter and Rori Jones.

Sport – well done to all the children from Year 3 up that attended the Cross Country at the Marches – great performances.

Admissions – the admission to Reception 2023 for learners born between 1/9/2018 – 31/8/2019 has now opened. Please note all applications are made directly to us as a Church VA school however we do follow the Powys dates. The closing date is 6th January 2023.

Curriculum for Wales – please follow the link which is a guide for parents about the new C4W

Health and Wellbeing – we wish to thank Sue Jones for coming in this week to work with each class in PE lessons on discipline, co-ordination, agility, balance and Judo. We know she is a very accomplished international athlete so we are fortunate and grateful that she can share her skills with the pupils. Details of the AJ Judo club in Llanfyllin are as per at the end of this newsletter for those that are interested.

Community Links – Barbara and Sharon, a local artist from Arts Connection came in to work with Dosbarth Mr McWhinnie on drama and art linked to what pupils want for their community, their own personal aspirations and what's important to them. This is a consultation project with a number of schools which will be summarised and displayed at the Dolydd, Llanfyllin at the end of the month. Pupil Voice at its best!
